

The Wéco autonomous ecological flushing toilet

How does it work?

1. Flushed water is pushed into the sedimentation tank
2. Aerobic degradation (activated sludge)
3. Electrolysis of the urine: chlorine derivatives eliminates the pathogens
4. Filtration to eliminate the potential residue
5. The filtered water arrives in the last tank
6. Reintroduction of water into the toilet cistern